

Membership Application

The National Procurement Institute (NPI) serves public procurement professionals internationally, fostering collaborative relationships among members representing governmental, educational, and institutional procurement. Members of NPI are the current and future leaders of the public procurement profession. NPI's Achievement of Excellence in Procurement Award® symbolizes organizational excellence in innovation, professionalism, productivity, e-procurement and leadership.

Membership in NPI is available to any person currently employed in the field of public procurement in government, education, healthcare and institutional agencies. NPI members may not be primarily engaged in sales activity and may not solicit business on behalf of themselves or their employer during any official NPI activity.

Membership Fees: Full year: $90.00 (After July 1st: $45)

Valid through 12/31/2020
